

THE DAILY JOURNAL

Is the best daily paper published on the line of the Central Pacific Railroad, east of Sacramento, and having a general circulation throughout the State, it is especially valuable as an advertising medium.

THE DAILY AND WEEKLY JOURNAL Have a combined circulation larger than that of any interior journal of Nevada, excepting those of the Comstock.

NEWS OF THE MORNING.

Michael Reese, the millionaire, died in Germany yesterday.

Cardinal de Luca will succeed Franchi at the Vatican.

France invites the International Monetary Commission to meet in Paris on the 10th inst.

The British House of Commons endorse Beaconsfield.

The jury in the Alf. Chantz murder case in Eureka had not agreed up to last evening.

The land agent of the Union Pacific Railroad at Omaha has issued an official circular letter giving notice that that road will not accept as final the recent decision of Secretary Schurz as to the right of citizens to settle and remain in undisturbed possession of lands granted the Union Pacific by the Government, and that any such settlers will be dealt with as trespassers.

The resumption of work on the Hudson river tunnel, which is to connect New York and Jersey City, is speedily expected. The tunnel will be four miles long and eighty-two feet below the surface of the river. Three gangs of men will work continuously day and night, commencing on the Jersey side. It is estimated that the construction will consume two years in time and $10,000,000, and will employ from 1,000 to 1,500 men.

THE TWO STATES.

Just now a controversy is going on between certain California and Nevada newspapers, relative to the productiveness of the two States. It seems that the Virginia City Enterprise said a few days ago that Nevada was a better State—meaning a more productive one—than California. We do not know as it injures California to have Nevada people pleased with the prospects of their own State. We are, however, satisfied with California; but after all the prospects of Nevada are much better, agriculturally considered, than most people imagine. For instance, wherever there is water for irrigating purposes the ashy soil will produce good crops. There are innumerable small valleys where grass grows luxuriantly and cattle thrive. Even upon the highest mountains, a species of bunch grass thrives, which is exceedingly nutritive. But we desire to speak of other matters. In the Humboldt Valley, experiments enough have been tried to convince the most skeptical that where the water can be obtained abundant crops may be raised. Indeed, grass is growing luxuriantly in a few localities where water has been turned on the ashy plains. Even thriving orchards are being planted, and shade trees present a beautiful appearance. It is well understood that the settlements near Salt Lake have but few advantages over a considerable portion of Nevada. At Salt Lake, the Mormons first made a stand, hoping to raise enough vegetables and grain to assist the next year's emigration, which intended to move to Southern California, but the results of their efforts so much exceeded their expectations that Salt Lake became the Mormon promised land. In Nevada, the snows and rains in the winter do not fall to much depth, as the moisture is taken from the clouds in passing over the mountains, but everywhere where irrigation takes place, good crops of certain grains are produced.

Now how are the people to obtain water? Nevada has an inexhaustible supply, which will be secured by sinking artesian wells, just as it will be in California. We look upon the prospects of the State of Nevada as being very promising in the future, for with her immense mineral resources, it will soon become an object to irrigate and cultivate as many products as possible. The people of Nevada in the near future, we believe will be as much surprised with the changes which will occur as we have heretofore been with those of California. The products of the two States will differ in many respects, but nevertheless they will be of great importance.—S. F. Call.

Dr. Stewart (Republican) of the third Minnesota district, has decided to run for Congress in opposition to Mr. W. D. Washburn, the regular nominee of his party. There is an opportunity for effective work on the other side.

WILL THEY SEE IT NOW?

Several men who went from this State and California to Congress have at different times attempted to secure legislation that would force the Central and Union Pacific railroads to treat the people along their line with some sort of decency. An array of facts has been presented that should have aroused a storm of indignation at the dishonest and outrageous dealings of these corporations, but the efforts of these gentlemen have fallen cold on the members from the Eastern States. The power of Huntington and Jay Gould has always proved ample for their purposes. Year after year the paid agents of these two giant corporations have hung about the halls of Congress ready to stamp out, by purchase, by threats, by flattery, by the influence of lewd women, by slander, vituperation and abuse, any action looking towards forcing them into a decent regard for the public interest. Backed up by millions of dollars and managed by two of the most unscrupulous scoundrels that have ever disgraced any age, they have been up to this time successful. They got a little setback by the Act that forced them to provide means for paying their just debts to the Government, but were left secure in their ability to continue their robberies on the people. In pursuance of the policy they have followed with Washoe county they now propose to get more than even by doubling their freight tariff on through goods. This is object number one. They also design to force every shipper to sign a contract that he will send all his freight over their roads. This is to prevent goods going by way of Cape Horn or the Isthmus. Special rates are promised to those who sign these short card contracts. The action of the railroad managers excites surprise in New York and Boston and out spoken indignation. It surprises no one here. Nothing in the shape of meanness is believed by the people of this State to be below the managers of the Central Pacific railroad. We have long since ceased to be astonished at the depravity and avarice of Huntington & Co. In one view of the matter we are glad Huntington and Gould have taken the course they have. It has aroused the people of the great commercial centers of the East and we hope the exactions may continue until they are ready to unite with us and wrest their ill-gotten power and gains from the hands of these men forever. There will be no freedom of business intercourse between the Atlantic and Pacific States until the Government assumes control of the Pacific railroads. The present managers have no thought above or beyond their own selfish ends and they care not what means they use to accomplish them. It was a terrible misfortune that this great work did not fall into the hands of large minded honorable men. We believe that the men who have built and now own the Union and Central Pacific railroads, have done more to lower and corrupt American politics than all other causes combined. The past cannot be helped, but the vile brood should be broken up and stamped out as far as possible. If the present action of Huntington and Gould shall call the attention of the whole country to the true history of their acts, it will be a good day for the Pacific States, for such a storm of indignation will be aroused as will sweep them away in spite of their black arts and stolen millions.

THE TELEPHONE.

In England and Germany the telephone is now firmly settled. Its uses are legion. If the wire of a telephone be extended parallel to telegraph wires, and supported on the same poles, the clicking of the telegraph instruments will be distinctly heard in the telephone, so that messages passing can be read. This opens a new utilization of the telephone, as it will be necessary simply to carry its wire near an enemy's telegraph line to read his dispatches, without tapping his wires. Another new use of the telephone is in the Norwegian herring fisheries. The fishing season takes place when the herrings come into the shoals to deposit their eggs; but it often happens that the fish accomplish the purposes and go back into deep water before all the fishermen can be warned. A hundred and twenty miles of submarine cable have been laid and telephones connected with it, so that fishermen on the coast can be immediately notified. Well may this little instrument be called the miracle of the age.

THE TRUE BUSINESS.

Ed. JOURNAL.—Never has there been a time in the history of our country when there has been more need of a Republican majority in both Houses of Congress than at this time. Never since 1860 has a more dangerous set of men controlled the lower House. The gross ignorance and recklessness of the last Democratic House has astonished the nation. Their boldly aggressive acts have proved that the spirit and principles of the Democratic party of 1878 are the same as in 1860. Flushed with the success of acquiring through the most damnable fraud, intimidation and murder an almost solid Democratic South, and jubilant over the attainment of a Democratic majority in Congress, they make no secret of their designs of obtaining control of the Government by any means in their power. Let us see what the Democracy are doing in and out of Congress. Already an endless array of fraudulent

SOUTHERN WAR CLAIMS

Are in the hands of the House Committee, and the entire Confederate war debt, including a little bill of $4,000,000 for emancipated slaves, looms up in the distance. Designs for the impeachment of the President underlie the Potter investigation. The amendments to the Constitution of the United States, making the Negro equal before the law, have been practically ignored by the Southern Democracy and their Legislatures are seeking to pass laws evasive of those amendments with a view of depriving the negro of the right of suffrage, if not with the intent of forcing him again into slavery. Their promises to maintain order in the South and prevent intimidation at elections, after the withdrawal of the U. S. troops, have been shamefully disregarded. Democratic members of Congress boldly admit that the wholesale outing down of appropriations for the civil service was for the purpose of crippling the "d—d black Republican Government." The reduction of the U. S. Army to such an extent as to leave our vast frontier unprotected from the Indians was a Rebel scheme of rendering the Government powerless against mob violence and anarchy, and defenseless in case of another rebellion. It is clear that the

REBEL DEMOCRACY

Cannot be trusted. Time after time they have asked clemency from the Government, and being loud in their protestations of loyalty, submission and reform in return, it has almost invariably been granted, but to the best and most magnanimous Government on earth these Rebel Democrats have returned riot and bloodshed for loyalty, insult and defiance for submission and have double discounted all their former acts of fraud and intimidation, for reform. It is certain that the movements of the Democratic party of to-day bode no good to the Government. To say that the Democracy are retrogressive and unpatriotic is to use terms too thin of expression to apply to their case—their retrogression amounts to dissolution, anarchy and final ruin, just as the Communists would have it; their want of patriotism may be summed up as defiance to any Government except such as they may prescribe as soon as they get the power. Turn the Democratic kaleidoscope which way you will, the form remains the same and admits of but one solution, and that is, Democratic rule means Rebel ruin. Men who stood by the country during the dark days of

THE REBELLION

Should carefully consider this condition of affairs. Let men who for whatever cause they may have strayed from the fold of the Republican party, reflect upon the course they are pursuing. May it not be that by your united action with the party and doing a little old-time square work in the ranks, the cause of your dissatisfaction may be removed? Certainly the 1-sons of the past eight years' history of Nevada politics must have convinced the leaders of the Republican party that it cannot be controlled except in the interest of the people; that it is a people's party, and that when the interests of the people are neglected or ignored the fealty and support of the people is withheld from the party. Let the leaders of the party meditate upon this fact; let them remember that when they bow to the behest of certain corporations, without souls, and whose interests are in conflict with and oppressive to the people, that they repel the affiliation of the people who have not only souls but votes. There would be no independent offshoots from the Republican party if the rank and file of the party were left to manage its affairs, but where the paid agents of railroad corporations assume control and take the leadership, the party gets fearfully bulldozed. The Republican party in California was ridden down by the Central Pacific Railroad Company, and the Democratic party in that State is going in the same way. It is uncertain what party will carry the next election in California; perhaps the Communists. In 1873 the farmers of the "Great West" rebelled against railroad tyranny and rule and organized the Granger movement. These people had suffered for years from a system of extortion and discrimination practiced by railroad corporations until patience had ceased to be a virtue. They rose in the majesty of their power, not as a rabble of strikers nor as a lot of Communistic fiends, but as a sovereign people intelligent enough to know their rights and brave enough to maintain them, and well they did it. The ballot box received their united voice and in thunder tones proclaimed the power of an outraged but law-abiding people. Old political parties melted away like an adobe hut in a cloudburst, and their dismay was only equalled by the consternation of the said road tyrants. Nevada is the worst

RAILROAD RIDDEN STATE

In the Union. It has been for the last ten years. It is daily, yes hourly, the topic of discussion among the people. Why has the press of Nevada preserved such a marked degree of silence upon the subject. Every one knows that freights and fares are more than one half too high and have been for ten years. They know that the meanest kind of extortion discrimination has been inaugurated and perpetrated against the people of Nevada by the C. P. R. R. company during that time. They know that hard times exist and that the exactions of this corporation is mainly the cause. Why is it that hardly a whisper of this monstrous evil is ever uttered by a Nevada newspaper? Free pass, eh? Anything else? Are you all subsidized, from the editor and proprietor down to the grimy little devil at the ink keg, or are you afraid Stanford will suggest to your patrons a depletion of your advertising columns, or take the consequences? Do you fear the ghost of the Sacramento Union? None of these? Then what is the matter? You all say it's the People's fault if good men are not nominated and elected. Will you tell us what you mean by "good men," and will you tell us whether you think the press has any influence in the matter, or do you think the people must do all the talking and thinking and working and you keep mum and your free pass. Does the newspaper press of Nevada believe that the evils above mentioned can be cured by legislation? The people universally believe and know it. Why should not the Nevada press have some opinion about it? Very recently the Enterprise and JOURNAL have spoken and struck the popular chord. Not long since the following appeared in the S. F. Post: "The Central Pacific Railroad is one of those anomalies of progress which teach that good can come from evil—in the vista of the hereafter and with much tribulation. Oppressing in tariff, unscrupulous in action and boldly defiant, it stands a barrier to the forward march of Nevada. Instead of extending and utilizing the powers of the State it weakens and absorbs them. Goods shipped from the East are taxed with through rates to Sacramento and local freightage back to the point of destination, although delivered en route. It is in the power of legislation to correct this extortion." A "live" Nevada newspaper rejoins: "Since when was it in the power of legislation?" What encouragement have

THE PEOPLE

To act in this matter when the newspapers persist in throwing cold water on every movement in that direction. The newspapers tell the people it is their fault that good men are not elected—not always so by any means. We know that towns and counties in this State are frequently colonized by parties in the interests of corporations, and the will of the people who are fixed residents have been thereby subverted. Another thing, the people have frequently elected such as the newspapers called "good men"—yes, good easy going men who were either too stupid to understand and combat a wrong or were "smoothies" with the people and willing tools in the hands of corporations. We don't want any more such "good men," but we do want men that we can trust, and we want to know their honest views on State and local questions before they are nominated. Many candidates will receive a warm reception at the ballot box. There are several candidates for high State offices who are editors of newspapers. What do their papers tell the people about the Bullion Tax question, the Chinese question, the regulation of freights and fares on the Pacific railroads, the regulations of freights and fares on railroads entering within the State, or any other questions of State interest. Go through the State and feel the popular pulse and you will find the people determined to settle these questions at the next election. They are determined to elect "good men" if they are sound on these questions. Let Republican newspapers and Republican voters pull together on these essential questions and the success of the party this Fall is assured. WASHOE.
